The deadline for receiving requests for clarification from Handicap International is: 24th December 2021 , email address : ts.oo@hi.org

Responses to the participants shall be sent to everyone in writing at the same time.

This schedule may be modified by Handicap International, if it needs to do so.
Submission of bids (commission2)

Tenderers shall submit their paper file in a sealed envelope to the address mentioned at the top of this document (submission by courier is accepted for international bidders). Tenderers shall be excluded from the award procedure if their bids are received after the deadline for the receipt of bids of 31st December 2021.

A digital file shall be attached either in the form of a USB key which can be returned upon request or an email sent to the dedicated email address h.lwin@hi.org

The companies concerned shall be asked to submit their best technical and commercial proposal that must comply with the conditions and presentation defined below. Any bids not meeting the below requirements shall be rejected.

Language: All written documents shall be in English .

Currency unit: All prices shall be expressed in MMK or USD (no other currency), inclusive of all applicable tax.

General purchasing conditions: They shall be initialled on each page and signed, and shall be included with the bid.

Bid validity period: Bids shall remain valid for a period of three (3) calendar months as from the deadline for the receipt of bids.

Amendment or withdrawal of bids: Tenderers may amend or withdraw their bids by written notification before the closing date for submission of bids (31st December 2021). No amendments may be made to bids after this date. Withdrawals shall be firm and final and will terminate any participation in the tendering process.

Costs of preparing bids: None of the costs incurred by tenderers in preparing and submitting their bids shall be reimbursable. All these costs shall be borne solely by the tenderers

6. Bid selection criteria

➤ Commission 1 : Administrative compliance

Bids shall be evaluated based on the information contained in the application form and attached documents. Tenderers may include any additional documents they deem relevant.

The selection criteria are level of experience, financial viability, ability to adapt to the activities of Handicap International (working language, company structure) and activity level and volume.

After deliberation by Commission 1, the companies that best meet the criteria described above shall be evaluated by Commission 2.

➤ Commission 2 : evaluation

Handicap International reserves the right to negotiate, accept or reject any bid or quotation at its sole discretion, and to continue the competitive dialogue for any response it considers advantageous. Handicap International is not obliged to accept the lowest prices or any of the bid. No bid may be modified after the closing date for the submission of bids.

Handicap reserves the right to draw up a list of pre-selected suppliers. Further discussions and competitive dialogue shall then be conducted with the pre-selected suppliers.

The purpose of the opening and evaluation of bids is to check that they are complete and valid.

A subsequent evaluation of the bid shall be carried out in Yangon by an evaluation committee composed of representatives of Handicap International.

The contract shall be awarded to the bid that is both technically and administratively compliant, but also the most economically advantageous, taking into account the quality of the services offered, the bid price and the total acquisition cost (criteria: price: 80%, delivery time: 20%)

In the interests of transparency and equal treatment, the evaluation committee may ask tenderers, in writing, to clarify their bids within 72 hours, without modifying them. None of these requests for clarification should be aimed at correcting any initial errors or omissions affecting the performance of the contract or undermining fair competition.

Any tenderers attempting to influence the evaluation committee in the process of examining, clarifying, evaluating and comparing bids with a view to obtaining information on the progress of the process or influencing Handicap International in its decision regarding the award of the contract shall have their tenders immediately rejected. No excuses shall be accepted for late submissions. Bids arriving after the deadline shall be rejected without evaluation.

HI will conduct due diligence, including physical samples verification, allowing control of:

- The quality of the items
- The conformity of the items with the specifications

7. Cancellation of a call for tenders procedure

In the event of the cancellation of a call for tenders procedure, tenderers shall be informed by Handicap International.

If the call for tenders procedure is cancelled before any of the external envelopes have been opened, the sealed envelopes shall be returned to tenderers unopened.

A cancellation may occur when:

1. The tendering procedure has been unsuccessful, i.e. Handicap International has received no valid or financially viable bids, or no bids at all;
2. The project's economic or technical parameters have been fundamentally modified;

3. Exceptional circumstances or force majeure makes the normal execution of the project impossible;
4. All technically compliant bids exceed the available budget;5. Irregularities have occurred in the procedure, especially if these have prevented fair competition.

In no circumstances shall Handicap International be liable for damages of any kind (in particular damages for loss of profits) in the event of the cancellation of a call for tenders, even if Handicap International has been warned of the possibility of damages.

The publication of a purchase notice does not commit Handicap International to implementing the announced programme or project.

8. Awarding of contract

The contract shall be awarded to the bid offering the best quality/price/ delivery ratio according to the needs defined in the call for tenders.

Handicap International shall evaluate the bids in terms of total acquisition cost.

Handicap International shall give preference to bids from suppliers who commit to a fixed rate for the entire duration of the contract.

By virtue of this document, Handicap International holds ownership of all bids received as part of this tender procedure. Consequently, bids shall not be returned to tenderers.
